CYRUS FARIVAR

[REDACTED]

Dear Mr. Farivar:

This letter is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request of 17 July 2014, for records consisting of, concerning, referring to, or relating to the transmission of or discussion of nude photographs, and/or otherwise open investigations into the alleged intentional misuse of signals intelligence (SIGINT), and/or love intelligence (LOVEINT). As previously provided, your request has been assigned Case Number 79377. As stated in our letter dated 15 October 2014, your request for expedited processing is denied. Since there are no accessible fees, we have not addressed your request for a fee waiver. Your request has been processed under the FOIA.

A recent search for responsive material located 2 documents, Office of the Inspector General Investigation Reports IV-11-0073 and IV-14-0011, that had been reviewed and processed for an earlier case. Since they have been requested by multiple individuals, we have posted them to our public website, www.nsa.gov. You can find them on the "Frequently requested information" page of the FOIA section. The URL for the "NSA Inspector General Reports of Investigation" section is
